Description

The Alabama Secretary of State is in the market research phase for developing a system for secure electronic voting via the internet for use by Alabamians covered under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, 42 United States Code § 1973ff (UOCAVA). As part of this process, the Alabama Secretary of State wants to learn more about the methods, best practices, and feasibility of secure electronic voting via the internet in local, state, and federal elections.

A Request for Information (RFI) has been created in support of this initiative to gather information that will assist the Alabama Secretary of State to determine: 1) the best and most appropriate methodologies available to implement a program for secure electronic voting via the internet; 2) the feasibility of such a program; 3) the timeline for full implementation; 4) the security risks associated with such a program; 5) the availability of potential sources for these services and proven experience wherein such services have been provided; and 6) the estimated cost of such a program.
